PAID INTERNSHIPS FOR ALL MAJORS

Work in Washington, D.C., or other major U.S. cities

Whether you're seeking an internship with the federal government or in the corporate sector, the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU) can provide you the opportunity to graduate with career experience.

Best of all, you can gain this experience while living in the nation's capital or cities like Atlanta, Albuquerque, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Los Angeles, Seattle, St. Louis, New York City, or other locations nationwide.

The HACU National Internship Program (HNIP) has been a premier student program for over 20 years, recognized as an internship program with the largest Hispanic participation.

(Sitting) Jose Torres, political science and government major at California State University, Fullerton, intern at LULAC through Ford Motor Company Fund.
(L-R) PBS interns Adis Mordan, computer science major at New Jersey City University; Julia Lopez, communication and journalism major at Nova Southeastern University; and Dianna Almanza, political science and government major at Regis University.

Eligibility

Interns spend ten or fifteen weeks at their assigned internships. To qualify, you must:

- Be enrolled in a degree-seeking program at an accredited institution in the U.S. or Puerto Rico
- Have completed freshman year
- Be an undergraduate or graduate student
- Have a minimum 3.0 GPA on a 4.0 scale
- Be authorized or eligible to work by law in the U.S.

Federal Intern Pay

Federal intern compensation is determined by academic level at the time of application. Pay is based on 40 hours per week:

- | | |
|--------------------|-------|
| • Sophomore/Junior | $490 |
| • Senior | $520 |
| • Graduate | $590 |

Corporate Intern Pay

Corporate interns will be paid salaries similar to federal interns based on 40 hours per week, at minimum.

For more Information

Information on the application process and online application is available at www.hacu.net/hnip, or Scan QR code

Travel and Housing Information

- Round-trip airfare for federal interns is arranged and paid by HACU. Prior approval may be requested by interns who wish to arrange their own transportation and receive reimbursement for expenses.
- Housing arrangements are managed by HACU. Federal interns pay for housing through payroll deductions. Federal interns can choose to arrange their own housing.
- HACU and corporations will coordinate with corporate interns on housing and travel arrangements, whenever applicable. Corporate interns may make their own housing and non-airfare travel arrangements. Corporate interns pay for their housing through electronic funds transfer.

Academic Credit

Interns may be eligible to receive academic credit. HACU can facilitate the process to ensure the necessary documentation is submitted.

Information about the HACU Scholarship Program, HACU Student Conference Scholarships and other student programs is available at www.hacu.net.

Visit the HACU website and select "Student Programs" listed under "Programs."

"My learning experience has been complemented with other enriching activities around Washington, D.C. Being here has been an amazing experience and I look forward to experiencing more and getting the most out of my internship in D.C."
